

Mogadishu, 13 July 2017

With reference to the Notice published on June 20th, 2017 regarding a Call for Proposals for Small Scale Projects launched by the Italian Agency for Development Cooperation (AICS), Somalia Office,

It has been decided that, due to the prolonged interruption of internet services which has affected Somalia since beginning of July 2017, the deadline for the submission of proposals has been postponed, to allow all the interested Somali Organizations to take part to the Call.

Therefore, the deadline for the submission of proposals to this Office has been set to August 28th 2017.

The extension is valid to all the eligible organizations.

Terms and conditions of the Call remain the same as per the published notice.
